

Farm to Fork 2019

Saturday, August 10th, 2019, The Women's Crisis Center, the Buffalo Trace Children's Advocacy Center, and the Mason County's Health Department HANDS Program are teaming up to bring another Farm to Fork event to Mason County. Three Silos' chefs/ owners will once again be cooking an amazing dinner that attendees will eat under a white tent on Laurel Oaks' beautiful lawn. Harry Pedigo and Company will be the entertainment. Tickets are $50.00 each, and tickets are limited so don't wait to get yours.

Your sponsorship will ensure that the three agencies provide meaningful services to the Buffalo Trace District. Our agencies truly depend on the generosity of businesses such as yours to make this community a better place to be. Please consider becoming a 2019 sponsor and supporting our important organizations.

The Women's Crisis Center provides trauma informed care to survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault. Women's Crisis Center serves all individuals who have experienced domestic violence, rape, and sexual assault. It is WCC's mission to lead our community in the social change needed to end domestic violence, rape, and sexual abuse through the prevention model Green Dot.

The Buffalo Trace Children's Advocacy Center, Inc. is a non-profit community based organization. The BTCAC is a child-focused program in which law enforcement, child protective services, prosecution, medical and mental health professionals come together to provide services for the child victim of sexual abuse and their non-offending caregivers.

The Health Access Nurturing Development Services (HANDS) home visit program is a voluntary program in which health department workers visit the homes of caregivers and expecting parents to help them learn more about caring for infants and children.

We hope you will join us for this exciting event!

Sincerely,
