If you or a loved one have been hurt by power-based personal violence, such as sexual assault or partner violence, we are here for you. Even if you just have questions, we can help.

We see you. We support you.

Call or text us anytime 24/7.

Northern Kentucky: (859) 491-3335
Boone, Campbell, Carroll, Gallatin, Grant, Kenton, Owen, & Pendleton Counties

Buffalo Trace: (606) 564-6708
Bracken, Fleming, Lewis, Mason & Robertson Counties

ioncenter.org
What we do:

- 24-hour hotline: Answer questions and provide crisis intervention services through our 24-hour hotline (calls/texts).
- Emergency shelter: Provide no-cost shelter for individuals and families fleeing domestic violence.
- Hospital advocacy: Meet survivors at a hospital, if they choose to go, to offer them support and access to resources.
- Counseling: Work with survivors to build skills and develop a plan to cope with their experience(s).
- Court advocacy: Assist with filing protective orders (EPO/IPO) and attend hearings with survivors.
- Law enforcement advocacy: Facilitate communication between survivors and law enforcement if the survivor chooses.
- Safety planning: Work to create a plan that can help survivors know the best way to react when in danger.
- Pet protection: Provide emergency board for pets whose families are fleeing domestic violence.

ioncenter.org

Services are funded, in whole or in part, from federal and state funds provided through KY Cabinet for Health and Family Services through a subcontract with KCADV and KASAP.

The Ion Center is a United Way Partner Agency.